

Norte Capital

Company Profile

Norte Capital is a leading Russian investment banking boutique providing services in the field of mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance and strategic consulting.

Norte Capital occupies a leading position in a segment of mergers and acquisitions with the participation of the largest Russian, Finnish and Scandinavian companies. For more than 25 years the company's partners have successfully completed over 100 transactions in various industries. During the same period more than 700 multi-scale strategic and consulting projects were realised.

Currently, Norte Capital accompanies 13 transactions involving public and private companies with a total estimated value of more than 50 billion rubles. At the same time there are also a number of active strategic consulting projects. Current activity of Norte Capital is carried out in such industries as energy, chemical industry, food industry, logistics, building materials and constructions, real estate, retail and others.

Also, traditionally the company has a strong expertise in the forest industry and its segments, IT and telecommunications.